Pursuant to the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, library users must be informed of what private data is being collected, its uses, and disposition (sometimes referred to as the "Tennessee warning"). By Minnesota law, information you provide in applying for a library card (other than your name) is private. Likewise, services you use, such as checking out materials or using the Internet, are also private. This information is available only to you and to appropriate library personnel.

The personal information provided, including materials checked out, must be released pursuant to a court order or may be shared with another agency to recover unreturned materials or excessive fines.

Notifications and preferences: Your contact information may be used to send notifications about account updates, holds, or checked-out items. Notices are sent primarily to the email address listed; notices may also be sent by mail or phone. You may update messaging preferences in the Online portal or at your home library. SMS (text) notifications may be available for certain types of notices.

I would like to sign up for SMS Notifications

Reading History: By default, your reading and checkout history is stored. You may choose to turn off reading history tracking in your Online portal or at your home library.

I would like to keep my reading history

I would like to opt out of reading history

Please Note: There is a thirty (30) day wait period for equipment rentals. This Includes hotspots, Chromebooks, and audio kits.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read the Tennessee Warning, confirm that the information provided is accurate, and accept responsibility for all materials borrowed and any charges incurred.
